A CREOLE LOVE SONG.

MRS L. MONCRIEFF.

ARRANGED FOR THE GUITAR BY
MADAME GIULIA PELZER.

ANDANTE. pp

VOICE. p I gaze all day on the burn - ing plain, and I

GUITAR.

long I long for the cool a - gain; I am sad and faint with the noon - day heart, and 'tis oh! I would, I were near my sweet, Oh!

come my be - lo - ved come, oh! heart of my heart my own, Oh!

come my be-lo-ved come I am wea-ry wait-ing for thee a-lone. But molto legato.

oh, if my heart had wings, To fly like a blue bird far, A-

nails.

- way and a-way to the end of the day, where the cool and the palm trees are A-

- way to a-wake my love, who swings in her hammock there, If

nails.

on-ly to breathe at her sweet, sweet ear, or to die like a kiss on her hair...

Will no cloud gath-er will no breath blow from the far, far hill and the far faint snow The sun burns white in the noon a - bove, And my heart is burnt like a flame with love Oh! come my be - lov - ed come, Oh!

mf

mf rall:

heart of my heart, my own Oh! come my be - lov - ed

rit. a tempo.

come I am wea - - ry wait - ing for thee a - lone But

mf legato.

oh, if my heart had wings, The wings of the evening breeze, To nails. nails.

sempre legato. ac - cell

fly far a way to the end of the day, To the cool and the tam'rind

tempo primo. p

trees a way to a wake my love, Who

swings in her ham - mock there, If on - ly to breath at her sweet, sweet ear, or to die like a kiss on her hair.....
